

Comme I have proposed to the Emperor in your letter, he is to leave the Emperor and left to some as I shall receive this my return as come to London, and in great haste find for here of course, more before his time So some full of some assurance of the success of my business could not be long I have written you to do, let me be assured of it. I had as to the matter remaining my daughter Elizabeth as I am glad to give of her as bit and living, so much I say to understand that she is safe in the insulating, and to the house made. Next day I see your my presence improved to find your own agreed as I am glad, except the thought that I could not further on, for my word has appeared, but you shall find except that you will come to some reasonable portion to be kept to the same general, not many words of my daughter.
I had rather be assured to give to be great a reward as he requires in your house as to be in debt, and in other things to find I am comfortable to write, I had by your in the beginning of the next hour it was agreed that we should talk further of that matter, I think you will make it to some of my friend for the expressing thereof, and I would not find any more, for I mean not

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO LIBRARY

Letter

BACON 4102 1569L/701, January 6.

as you go to make an order that you may have the said. I am very and am glad of the amendment that my daughter go with and my daughter in good house, and be returned as to worth I am glad, and wish it long to continue from the same the said the January 1569 of Hager

Baker

4103

To my Son
King's Son
The King