Biographical Note

Max Putzel (1925-1996), was born in Germany and completed his Bachelor's (1949), Master's (1952), and Ph.D. (1965) at the University of Chicago. He worked as a professor of German Language and Literature at Indiana University from 1965 to 1990, and retired in Hyde Park. Though Putzel specialized in 19th century German literature, he also published a well-known biography of William Marion Reedy, editor of the St. Louis Mirror in the early 20th century.

This collection consists of coursebooks and notes from Max Putzel's time as a University of Chicago undergraduate, and may be relevant for any researcher interested in the history of undergraduate education in the 20th century or at the University of Chicago specifically.
